

BEACH TRASH ART EVENT

Join River Kidz and Local Artists for Beach Trash Awareness Event and Launch of Third Edition Workbook Illustrated by Julia Kelly

April 7, 2018 10 (sharp)-1
Sewall's Point Park

Workbook illustrator Julia Kelly will be at the event, along with local artists Cristina Maldonado and Rebecca Fatzinger Wendy Parker, Martin Co. Solid Waste Program Manager will give a presentation on recycling!

How can you participate?

Start combing the beaches now for plastic, rope and other debris Bring your collected items to the April 7th event and join others in creating art projects that will be photographed and used to inform our community and elected officials Participate in our collaborative "Marty the Manatee" art project using recycled and beach trash materials

Kids eight and under, nine to fourteen and 15 and up can enter three contests that include most beach trash collected, most unique item found, and best overall.

Founded in 2011, the River Kidz mission is to speak out, get involved and raise awareness because we believe kids should have a voice in the future of our rivers.
