

Elliott Museum Lunch & Lecture: Everglades Restoration

with Eric Eikenberg, CEO, Everglades Foundation

Thursday, March 5th, 2020

Lecture Only: 11:30 am- 12:30 pm am in the Heritage Theater

Optional Lunch with the Speaker at O's Cafe @ The Elliott: 12:30 or at the conclusion of the lecture

Florida is now the third-largest state with a population exceeding 20 million. More than eight million South Floridians and 88 million annual tourists depend on America's Everglades for their drinking water. Join Eric Eikenberg, CEO of The Everglades Foundation to discuss the history, science, and policy that fuel Florida's water supply, environment, and economy.

Cost: Regular Admission for Non-Members; Museum Members free for Lecture but everyone must RSVP. Seating is limited and RSVPs are seated first. Walk-ins welcome, space permitting.

Optional: Lunch with the speaker at O's Café @ the Elliott: $15 prepaid includes entrée, soft drink, tax, and gratuity.

Please RSVP by calling 772-225-1961
